

Dr Nathan Faulkner

Counselling Psychologist and Psychotherapist (BSc, CPsychol, DCPsych)

Professional Profile

Dr Faulkner is a chartered counselling psychologist and integrative psychotherapist registered with the British Psychological Society (BPS), Health and Care Professions Council (HCPC) and the UK Council for Psychotherapy (UKCP).

Having worked in both outpatient and acute inpatient mental health settings within the NHS, charitable organisations and private medical centres in London and across Kent Dr Faulkner has experience of supporting individuals experiencing a wide variety of issues including depression, bereavement, stress, anxiety, addiction and relationship difficulties.

In addition to this he also has extensive experience of working within specialised healthcare services supporting individuals in managing major life transitions following surgery and/or health related difficulties.

Special Interests

Applying psychological and therapeutic approaches within healthcare,
Depression, Anxiety, Relationship difficulties

