

Dr Pippa Mills

BM MRCP FRCR

Professional Profile

Dr Mills completed her undergraduate studies in 1982 from the University of Southampton. She spent the last 25 years in Kent working in the area of breast imaging and screening.

She holds membership of the following professional bodies, these are: Royal College of Radiologists Breast Group and the American Roentgen Ray Society.

Her areas of special interest are symptomatic breast disease, image guided biopsy and management of respiratory disease.

Special Interests

Symptomatic breast disease, Image guided biopsy, Management of respiratory disease