

Mr Abhijit Dey

MBBCh MRCS(Eng) MD FRCS(Tr&Orth)

NHS Practices

Medway NHS Foundation Trust

Professional Profile

Mr Dey has a specialist interest in complex hip and knee disorders. His practice includes arthroscopic knee reconstruction, sports injuries, and primary and revision hip and knee replacement. Mr Dey graduated in medicine from the University of Cardiff, and was subsequently awarded a Doctorate from the University of Sheffield. Mr Dey completed his Specialist Orthopaedic Training in the Leicester region. Thereafter, Mr Dey undertook a one-year Fellowship in Hip & Knee Arthroplasty at the Calvary Hospital in Canberra, Australia, and a six-month Fellowship in Knee Surgery and Sports Injuries at the Holland Orthopaedic and Arthritic Centre in Toronto, Canada.

Special Interests

Hip & Knee Surgery