

Mr David Penman

TD MRCOG

Professional Profile

Mr David Penman completed his undergraduate medical studies in 1984 from St.Thomas's Hospital London. He gained his postgraduate experience from Queen Charlotte's and Chelsea Hospital and St Thomas's Hospital London. He then undertook his Registrar training on the St. Georges rotation.

His Senior Registrar training was completed in St' Michaels Hospital Bristol in the subspecialty of Maternal and Fetal medicine. In 1997 Mr Penman gained the role of Consultant Obstetrician and Gynaecologist and specialist in Fetal Medicine at the Medway Hospital. Since 2006 he has gone on to work full time in private practice.

Special Interests

Fetal medicine, Menstrual disorders, Abdominal/pelvic pain/endometriosis, Polycystic ovary syndrome