

Mr Lee David

MBBS MRCS (Eng) FRCS (Tr & Orth)

NHS Practices

Maidstone & Tunbridge Wells NHS Trust, Kent

Professional Profile

Mr David graduated at Royal London Hospital Medical College in 1994. After completing Basic Surgical Training, he became Clinical Research Fellow at the Royal National Orthopaedic Hospital, Stanmore.

Specialist Registrar Training was completed on the South East Thames rotation, with Advanced Training at Stanmore followed by Senior Knee Fellow post at Guy's Hospital. Appointed as a Consultant to Maidstone and Tunbridge Wells NHS Trust in 2008 where he is College Tutor for Surgery.

He has published numerous research papers, has a keen interest in training and service improvement and is an Enhanced Recovery Programme Clinical Lead for Hips and Knees.

Special Interests

Hip & knee arthroplasty, Revision surgery, Knee arthroscopy and lower limb trauma surgery