

Mr Luis Amaya

MD FRCOphth

NHS Practices

St Thomas' Hospital NHS Foundation Trust, Evelina Children's Hospital

Professional Profile

Mr Amaya completed his undergraduate medical studies in 1983 and became a UK Consultant in 2001. He undertook his specialist training from Great Ormond Street Hospital in paediatric ophthalmology and strabismus. This was then followed by 10 years in South America where he worked as Head of Department for a teaching children's hospital.

Mr Amaya holds membership of several professional bodies which includes: Royal College of Ophthalmology, American Association of Paediatric Ophthalmology & Strabismus, European Paediatric Ophthalmology Society, Pan-American Association of Ophthalmology.

Special Interests

Cataract Surgery, Paediatric Ophthalmology, Strabismus

