

Professor Mike Samuel

BA, MA, BM BCh, MD, FCRP

Scans, tests, services & treatments available

- Neurology

NHS Practices

- William Harvey Hospital, Ashford, Kent
- King's College Hospital, London

Professional Profile

Professor Michael Samuel covers all aspects of general neurology, such as headaches, unsteadiness, weakness, sensory symptoms, and epilepsy. His sub specialty interest includes all Movement Disorders.

Additionally, with neurology, neurosurgical, and other allied sub-specialty colleagues, has developed and delivered the complex treatments, such as deep brain stimulation, for Movement disorders, Tremor, Parkinson's disease, and Dystonia.

Professor Samuel is a member of the Association of British Neurologists, Movement Disorders Society (USA), British Medical Association, Movement Disorders Specialist Interest Group (UK), British Neurotoxin Network, and British Society of Stereotaxic and Functional Neurosurgery.

He is a reviewer for several movement disorders academic journals.

Please note to see Professor Samuel a referral letter is required for all appointment requests.

Special Interests

1. Movement disorders

2. Tremor
3. Parkinson's disease
4. Dystonia
5. Deep brain stimulation
6. Botulinum toxin